A powerful story of the unique connection that John Rogers has with the spirit world. John shows us how his special gift enables him to help us reconnect with loved ones who have passed over – and show us how we can make that connection ourselves.

“The Awakening Soul” is a dialog from the other side of life. As a medium, John embraces his special connection with his spirit guide, to help those searching for answers.

What is the soul and what role does it play in my life? Can my soul extend beyond my physical body to connect with the other side? These are just a few of the universal questions answered by professional medium John Rogers.

Descriptions of workshops with Reverend John Rogers

The Aura and You

Your lights are on and shining quite luminously at times and you don't even know it! These so-called lights that emanate with a spectrum of colors are what we call the auric field that surrounds our physical body. In this workshop we will not only learn more about the aura, but you will have a chance to read this aura with other students in the class.

Psychometry to Mediumship

In this workshop you will understand that each of you have the skills to communicate with the ones on the other side of life. This workshop will consist of hands on methods of working with others in the class to develop your mediumistic skills

Spirit Connecting thru this Alpha level. Mediation Practices

There are many ways to connect to the other side of life that is called the spirit realm. In this workshop you will learn to move through 4 levels of relaxation, arriving at the Delta level where you will connect with the spirit side and your loved ones. Learn what it means to apply this application in your every day practice
